Educational Resources

The Intersection of Academia and Practice: Publishing in Leading U.S. Accounting Organizations’ Journals
   Douglas M. Boyle, James F. Boyle, and Dana R. Hermanson .......................................................... 1

How to Publish in Peer-Reviewed Practitioner Accounting Journals
   Douglas M. Boyle, James F. Boyle, and Dana R. Hermanson .......................................................... 19

Summaries of the Teaching Domain Statements of the 2019 Cook Prize Winners
   Elizabeth Dreike Almer, Mary S. Stone, Margarita M. Lenk, William E. McCarthy, Edmund Outslay, and Jill Mitchell .......... 31

Instructional Resources

Learning from Ethical Violations in Public Accounting: A South African Audit Scandal and a Firm’s Transformation
   Mark A. Holtzblatt, Craig Foltin, and Norbert Tschakert .............................................................. 37

Larson Industries: A Case on Identifying and Researching Revenue Recognition Issues
   Casey J. McNellis, Gerhard J. Barone, and Joshua Herbold .......................................................... 65

Kabbage: A Fresh Approach to Understanding Fundamental Auditing Concepts and the Effects of Disruptive Technology
   Michael E. Ozlanski, Eric M. Negangard, and Rebecca G. Fay ..................................................... 77